MEDIA RELEASE

June 27, 2022

Dear Editor / Head of Department,

Closure of Schools on Tuesday 28th June, 2022 Due to Tropical Storm Warning

All Principals are asked to note the following arrangements for school operations on Tuesday 28th June, 2022, due to the Tropical Storm Warning currently issued for Trinidad and Tobago:

1. All Primary Schools will remain closed
2. Secondary Schools which do not have CAPE examinations scheduled on Tuesday June 28th, 2022 will remain closed.
3. Secondary Schools, which have CAPE examinations scheduled for Tuesday June 28th, 2022, will remain open, and CAPE examinations will proceed as scheduled. The students of these secondary schools who are not involved in CAPE examinations are asked to remain at home. Principals are to inform teaching and non-teaching staff essential to the conduct of the CAPE examinations on Tuesday June 28th, 2022 of their requirement to be present at school on that day. All other teaching and non-teaching staff are asked to remain at home.
4. Students who are carded to write CAPE examinations on Tuesday, June 28th, 2022 must attend their scheduled examinations unless prevented from doing so by weather-related circumstances on the day.

The inability to attend must be reported to the school's Principal as soon as possible on Tuesday, 28th June, 2022.

Please note that make-up examinations are not administered by CXC, so all efforts to attend the examinations as scheduled should be made.

Unless further advised by a subsequent Circular Memorandum, all schools will resume full operations on Wednesday, 29th June, 2022.
