MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

MEDIA RELEASE

28th June, 2022

Dear Editor / Head of Department.

Results of the Secondary Entrance Assessment (SEA) 2022

The Ministry of Education (MoE) is pleased to announce that the results of the Secondary Entrance Assessment (SEA) 2022 will be available to parents/guardians on Friday 1st July, 2022 via the (SEA) Online Portal and paper-based at schools for this current academic year.

Parents/guardians are reminded that they can access their child/ward's results via the online results portal from 12:01a.m. on Friday 1st July, 2022, on their laptop or any mobile device. Further information regarding SEA results and the SEA online portal can be found at <https://www.moe.gov.tt/sea-2022>.

For paper-based results, parents/private candidates should collect their results from their respective school/district office from 10:00 a.m., on Friday 1st July, 2022. Parents/guardians are reminded that they are to adhere to all the necessary health and safety protocols and are asked to note that only one parent/guardian should visit the school or District Office to collect the SEA results.

Parents/guardians are however reminded that the paper-based result slips must be collected for student placement in the secondary school system.

The Ministry wishes to congratulate all students who wrote the SEA 2022 and looks forward to your successful transition into Secondary School as you continue to access quality education.
